Produce to the People: In 2024, 1,604,616 pounds of fresh produce and nutritious food was distributed to approximately 158,970 participants through 7 weekly community markets, and our food box delivery service. We experienced a 167% increase in participation in our services, as a result of the impacts of Hurricane Helene and pre-existing socio-economic factors like housing costs, inflation and low wages, contributing to the increase in food insecurity. We continued to see growth in our home delivery program, providing healthy food for 5,420 households that were affected by transportation and health barriers. With the purchase of a 10,000 square foot warehouse in July, and an increase in space capacity and infrastructure, we were able to meet the dramatic increase in need for our services. Due to the destruction of MANNA Food Bank from Hurricane Helene, there was a significant reduction of donated food available during the last quarter of the year. This resulted in a need for

Farmers Alliance: 2024 proved to be another pivotal year for this program as we continued to focus on strengthening the local food system by supporting local farmers, growers, community gardens and businesses. We invested in the local food economy by purchasing Grade A and B produce from small to mid-size farmers and growers, as well as providing on-farm service-learning experiences for adults and children. In 2024, we collaborated with 75 farm partners and distributed over 400,997 pounds of locally grown and sourced food through our community markets and home-delivery program. We also shared 14,400 plant starts with our participants and farm partners, as well as provided gardening education and resources.

Rooted in Health: This evidence-based, whole person health education program for adults and children includes weekly classes, cooking demos, recipes, nutrition information, resources, and nutrition counseling. We delivered 302 yoga, exercise, and health & wellness classes, as well as organized 60 after-school sports and education events. We conducted 110 live cooking demonstrations and shared over 30,000 samples at the community markets. Over 50,000 printed recipes and education materials were also shared at our markets, including 5,310 kids' activities. In addition, 32 dietitian counseling sessions were administered. In the months that followed Hurricane Helene, we focused our efforts on delivering trauma, stress and emergency response support programming.
Rooted in Health Kids - AKA Green Aprons: This innovative program for youth builds healthy nutrition habits, self-esteem, self-efficacy, and offers fun social connections with other children and
